

St. John Vianney Catholic School

Catholic School Community Council
(CSCC)

What is the CSCC?

- The CSCC plays an important role in keeping communication open between all key stakeholders: parents, students, teachers, the principal, parish and members of the broader community
- The CSCC provides a forum for parents and other members of the school community to make recommendations, which are considered by the school principal

What are the benefits of being involved in the St. John Vianney CSCC?

- You will become an important partner in the education system
- You will contribute to the shared goal of improving student achievement
- You can express your opinions on relevant issues
- You will be kept informed about what is happening at St. John Vianney and within the Board
- It is a rewarding experience that will make a difference in your child's education
